

Rex W. Ostrander

Rex Ostrander is currently Chief, Military Programs for the Kansas City District Corps of Engineers. He is serving as branch chief with oversight responsibility for the programs and project management activities related to execution of the district's large, complex, and diversified military (MILCON, BRAC, O&M) program totaling approximately $1B over the next 3 years. Mr. Ostrander has previously served the US Army Corps of Engineers in 3 different districts in a variety of permanent and temporary positions to include Resident Engineer, Chief of Planning Branch, Chief of Operations Division and Regional Program Manager in Iraq. He has received several Commanders' Awards for Civilian Service and was awarded the Superior Civilian Service Award for service during a 120-day tour in Iraq in 2004. Prior to entering Federal service with the USACE, Mr. Ostrander worked 14 years in the private sector for several oil and gas exploration companies. Mr. Ostrander has a Bachelor's degree in Chemical Engineering, a Master's degree in Environmental Engineering, an MBA, is a registered professional engineer and is a certified Project Management Professional. He holds an Administrative Contracting Officer's warrant for USACE. He has been married 29 years to wife Christy. They have two daughters - Michelle and Monica.